Friday Bulletin, October 19, 2012

Department of Religion, University of Florida

Events

Professor Graham Schweig, Professor of Philosophy and Religious Studies and Director of the Asian Studies Program at Christopher Newport University, will be holding a seminar for graduate students and faculty entitled “Expanding the Notion of ‘Theism:’ An Interreligious Theological Analysis of Yoga and Bhakti Conceptions,” on Friday, October 19th, at 2:00 pm in 117 Anderson Hall. This event is sponsored by the Center for the Study of Hindu Traditions (CHiTra). Please see prior bulletin for details.

Publications

News

On Tuesday, October 16th, Professor Bron Taylor was moderator and participant in a forum of religious leaders involved with the World Wildlife Fund's “Sacred Earth Program,” Board of Directors & National Council Joint Session, in Washington DC.

Professor Mario Poceski was invited to give a public lecture on Chinese Buddhism (title TBA) at the University of the West. The lecture will take place on their campus in Rosemead (California), on March 26.

PhD candidate Caleb Simmons has received the AIIS Junior Fellowship to continue his research in India in 2013-2014. The AIIS fellowship competition is open to both graduate students and full-time faculty at colleges and universities in the United States. Approximately 35 fellowships are awarded each year. Congratulations, Caleb!

Compiled by Anne Newman
Edited by Mario Poceski